

Please do not allow telemarketers to have access to our home phones against our wishes as we have been placed on a no call list. We pay for our phones and should be able to block unwanted solicitors from taking up our personal time.